MEMBERS OF THE WILLING WORKERS' CLUB AND THE AMBULANCE QUILT THEY KNITTED

Among the earnest workers for the Red Cross chapter of this city are a number of little girls who have formed a club and who call themselves the "Willing Workers." The young misses meet regularly every week and spend the time in knitting and they have been earnestly at work for the past six weeks. Quite a record has been made by the girls in knitting and putting together an ambulance quilt, which they started six weeks ago and have just completed. There are seven members of the club and they met once a week, so the quilt was finished in record time.

The seven members of the "Willing Workers' club are Margaret Vetres, Genevieve Syphers, Dorothy Roach, Doris Stewart, Helen Francis, Evelyn Payne and Agnes Hodge. Little Miss Helen Francis is president of the club.

ENTERTAINED AT CAPITAL CITY.

FOR MISS FERIL HESS.

Mrs. J. S. Lewis was hostess to a number of her friends who are also friends of Miss Feril Hess, at a luncheon in the Weber club dining room last Tuesday at 1 o'clock, the affair being in honor of Miss Hess who left this city Wednesday for New York where she has accepted a responsible position in the immigration offices. Miss Hess was also honored at an afternoon affair Monday when Mrs. W. A. Middleton entertained a few friends.

SURPRISE PARTY.

Mrs. T. G. Brown, who will leave Ogden shortly for her former home in Corinne, Utah, was most pleasantly surprised by a large number of her friends last Tuesday evening. Several guessing games were played and honors were given to Mrs. Clancy Smith, Mrs. Althea B. Gage and Mr. Iverson. The consolation prize was given to Mr. Missner.

Mrs. Brown as guest of honor, was presented with a handsome set of silver spoons as a token of esteem in which she is held by her many friends who regret her departure from this city where she has resided for the past two years.

The evening was delightfully spent until a late hour when delicious refreshments were served to the following: Mesdames Stevens, Monahan, Randall, Collins, Colard, Holmgren, Koons, Rouds, Richards, Carlson, Sawyer, Coolidge, Heath, Klingman, Warrington, Cook, Letta, Klingman, Higman, Haslet, Chilton, Dills, Kirby Dumke, Cole, Marriott, Sarver, Clancy Smith, Peterson, Greenwell, Mr. and Mrs. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. Iverson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meissner, Miss Ellen Meissner, Miss Lulu Cludman, Miss Gladys Brown, Mrs. Gage, Mrs. Harrop and Mrs. Whitaker.

SHOWER FOR RECENT BRIDE.

The cozy little bungalow of Mr. and Mrs. Horace J. McFarlane, 434 Canyon Road was the scene of much merriment last Tuesday evening when the Mrs. McFarlane entertained at a shower in honor of Mrs. Harry Grandville Miller, formerly Miss Rita D. McFarlane, one of Ogden's popular young women, who is being married to Mr. Harry Grandville Miller, a well-known local business man, on Wednesday, June 12.

The dining table presented a gorgeous hue with its decorations of ferns and roses and beautiful center-piece. At 10 o'clock a dainty two-course luncheon was served.

One of the most attractive features of the evening was the fish pond with its realistic appearance from which the guest of honor fished for the many beautiful and useful gifts which were received from the host of friends who came to wish her much joy and happiness.

When the clock struck the wee hours of midnight the guests departed for their homes after spending one of the most enjoyable evenings of the season.

Mrs. McFarlane was assisted by Miss James McFarlane, Mrs. Jack Stahr and Mrs. Rial C. Moore, which were present were: Mrs. Harvey G. Miller, Mrs. James McFarlane, Mrs. A. A. Miller, Mrs. Horace J. McFarlane, Mrs. Jack Stahr, Mrs. Rial C. Moore, Mrs. Wilford Cawley, Misses June Forsha, Floss Ruoy, Rose Ewing, Carol Kandland, Jacketter Turner, Alter Duff, Mary Telleson, Flissie Morris.

ially well known in musical circles. She is the possessor of an unusually sweet voice.

During the past week and this week prior to the wedding, a number of affairs were given by friends of the bride. Mrs. Arthur Budge entertained in her honor and a pretty afternoon affair was given this week by Mrs. Claude B. Cave.

FLOWER MISSION.

Flower Mission day was most fittingly observed by the Women's Christian Temperance union, last Thursday afternoon at the First Methodist church. This was their tenth anniversary of the birthday and held a commemoration of the beautiful life and character of Miss Jennie Cassidy, who for a number of years, was National superintendent of Flower Mission work of the W. C. T. U. Miss Cassidy's life was one of daily service, fragrant with God's love. Although an invalid with a cripple, she brought cheer and gladness to thousands of sick and unfortunate ones. A very pleasing program was given, while the ladies worked with busy fingers fashioning bouquets and tying with white ribbon with a scripture text attached. The sick in the hospital, the unfortunate ones in the city and county jails, the Crittenden Home, and many others were remembered and as a token of appreciation those who at all times kindly help us in our work. Owing to the scarcity of flowers the ladies were unable to reach all but will not forget them when flowers are more plentiful. The program was as follows: Opening number, "Praise God from
